

PREVENT DUTY @ NAIS

The children have the right to their opinion and encouraged to share it.
The school respects this right however works proactively to prevent children being radicalised and be influenced by extreme fundamentalism.

Promotion of the British Values

Respect, rule of Law, tolerance, individual liberty and democracy

Rights Respecting Ethos

This vision guides all improvements

Social, Moral, Spiritual and Cultural experiences

Evidence in HT office which is cross reference with British Values

Examples include.....
PCSO visits, circle time (open discussion), Football player endorsing RESPECT on and off the pitch, cultural week, chinese new year and indian culture visitors, school council

E-safety policy

No use of the internet without adult supervision
Guidance shared with parents

Rights Respecting Behaviour Policy

Open discussion and addressing disrespectful behaviour towards anyone, esp if about appearance or belief or opinion.

Broad and Balanced curriculum

Incl RE, Similarities and differences between each other and other children across the world, use of international events to encourage discussion.

Area for Improvement 2015-16

Further use of international events, support for parents re Prevent Duty, PRAISE leading to RESPECT model for behaviour policy